

Maryland's Regions, Counties, Cities, and Towns

Legend:
 ☆ 23 County Seats
 ● 157 Municipalities

Note: In Maryland, the county seat is the town or city where county government is centered. The county seat is where the executive and legislative branches of county government have their offices, and where the county courthouse is located. Municipalities are towns or cities that are self-governing. Most commonly, they have been incorporated by an act of the General Assembly, though sometimes by referendum.
