The Growth Tier Map follows the tier definitions enacted in the Sustainable Growth and Agricultural Preservation Act (SB713) and guidance from the Maryland Department of Planning. The tier designations do not reflect current zoning and are to be used only for implementing the provisions of the Act.